

LOCAL NEWS.

Announcements.

GROVER'S THEATRE.—At the urgent solicitation of many patrons, Manager Grover has introduced a great musical treat every evening. The programs are arousing, the press is echoing the sentiment, and the authorities are moving in the right direction. Several weeks ago a committee was appointed on a resolution offered to the Board of Trustees by Mr. Stewart, the editor of the Advertiser, to improve some of their most beautiful songs, several of their amusing acts, and concluding with a burlesque opera. As there was a great rush for seats during last week and many ladies were unable to obtain a ticket, we will, without any loss to our readers or of our own sex, go to proper season and secure desirable seats for the ladies who accompany them.

CENTRASSEAU.—Perdaval's Excelsior Combination. The popular manager of this favorite place of resort, have engaged for the present week, Miss Fanny Forrest, the celebrated vocalist, and the famous Dan Duryea, the Peerless Hall, in this city about a year ago, who receives the highest salary of any one in the profession; Miss Salie Duval, the sweet songstress, and most favorably known in this country; Miss Anna Miller, the great amateur dancer, late of Winter Garden, N. Y.; Miss Elan Colleen, the splendid danseuse from the Continental Theatre, Philadelphia, and a full corps de ballet. Messrs. Denby Gaither, Andy Leavitt, Johnny Pierce, Charley Deane, and the astonishing gymnasts, the Deane Brothers, together with others two numbers to mention.

They will all appear to-night in a grand entertainment, and this simple announcement is sufficient to fill the house to overflowing.

Ford's ATHENAEUM.—A most excellent bill is put forth for this evening's entertainment at the expense of the management.

The salary of the preceptor of each male grammar school, including his compensation for the high school, $1,200 per annum; preceptor of each female grammar school, $550 per annum; teacher of each male intermediate school, $450 per annum; teacher of each female intermediate school, $450 per annum; teacher of each secondary school, $350 per annum; teacher of each primary, $300 per annum.

The tabular statement shows, under the present system, five teachers, at an aggregate salary of $2,550.

This is substantially the same as the admirable system adopted in the North, where free schools have attained such perfection, and we hope it will speedily supersede the present defective system.

Correction.
To the Editor of the Republican:
In your last issue a writer under the head of "Local News," in noticing the "malfeasance" of a police constable, has erroneously stated as follows:

"We understand that several cases of a similar nature (delinquency) against Callahan have been sent by Justice Thompson before the Circuit Court, which has the power of appointment.

Allow me to state, in justice to the accused, that he is not a single case, against that officer to the Circuit Court. It is, however, true, that he has been sent up to the court on two occasions, and the last time he was sent up to the court on the top of the Star.

He is the bane of the crowd, and his name is the bane of the breasts caught the banner at the right moment, and sent its "blood stripes and bright stars" fluttering in full view where it proudly floated amid the buzzards of the crowd, accompanied by the most detestable of the hand which apparently struck at the never to be forgotten "Star Spangled Banner."

Rev. Byron Sunderland, D. D., was then introduced to the audience, and delivered one of the most eloquent and impressive addresses in the history of the church, and a powerful and faithful oration was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes, and boldly entered Sunderland, sent a glorious salutation to the top of the Star.

As Dr. Morell, rector of Washington Parish near the navy yard, then offered an appropriate prayer.

The hand then performed "Hail Columbia," in its usual manner with thrilling effect, after which the organ was struck, and a powerful and faithful emission was brought forward, and a lady was commissioned to throw it to the breeze.

Miss Henrietta Bailey, an accomplished and patriotic young lady of this city, seized the ropes,